

National Runaway Switchboard Prevention Month What Did You Do?

Now that National Runaway Switchboard Prevention Month (NRPM) activities have been completed, please take a few moments to share your success.

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Contact Person: _____ Telephone: _____

Email Address: _____

Did your organization have a special event or activity to promote National Runaway Prevention Month? If so, tell us about it:

What of the following strategies did you use to promote National Runaway Prevention Month? (Circle applicable numbers.)

1. Request a media outlet to publicize a local NRPM?
2. Request a media outlet to run a public service announcement in conjunction with NRPM?
3. Request a public official to issue a state, local, or other RPM Proclamation?
4. Invite a public official to participate in an NRPM activity?
5. Make presentations to youth on runaway prevention?
6. Make a presentation to adults on runaway prevention?
7. Invite volunteers to assist your program in conjunction with NRPM?
8. Volunteer to serve dinner at a youth shelter? If so, on what date?
9. Contact YMCA National Safe Place about becoming a Project Safe Place community site?
10. Develop your own activity not described in this kit. If so, what was _____ it? _____

Don't forget to include any media clippings and pictures of your activities.

Finally...

1. Was the National Runaway Prevention Month kit helpful to your efforts? yes no
2. What could we do next year to improve your ability to understand an NRPM _____ activity? _____

Thank you for helping support youth and their families.

Please Fax this questionnaire (without media clippings or photos) by January 5, 2003 to:
773-929-5150

Or, if you have media clippings and photos, mail them to:

National Runaway Prevention Month
National Runaway Switchboard, 3080 N. Lincoln Avenue, Chicago, IL 60657